This trust account will be held on our behalf by a bank licensed under the Singapore Banking Act or such other financial institutions permitted under the relevant regulations. 7.2 We may, for the purpose of depositing monies received on your Account which are denominated in a foreign currency in a trust account, maintain a trust account with a custodian outside Singapore. This custodian will be appropriately licensed, registered or authorised to conduct banking business in the respective jurisdiction in which the account is maintained. In such case, you understand that the laws and practices relating to trust accounts in the relevant jurisdiction may differ from the laws and practices in Singapore. Such differences mean that your monies may not enjoy the same level of protection as accorded to monies that are held in Singapore. Depending on the jurisdiction, this may affect your ability to recover the funds deposited in the trust account. 7.3 You acknowledge that where your monies are held with such bank, custodian, other financial institution and/or otherwise passed on to an Intermediary, as described in Clause 8.1 below, the manner in which your monies may be held in different entities may be different. 7.4 In addition, we may hold monies received on your account in an omnibus customer trust account together with monies that we hold for other customers. This means that such monies in the trust account will be commingled with the monies of our other customers. The risks of this commingling is that it is administratively and operationally difficult, if not impossible (in view of the constant fluctuation of the aggregate balance in such account), to account separately for each of our customers' respective interest due on their respective cash	Your money is maintained by us in a consolidated trust account for all our customers' monies maintained with DBS Bank Ltd. DBS Bank Ltd is currently licensed to carry on banking business in Singapore. If you make investments into certain portfolios, we may also hold your money together with the monies of our other customers in a consolidated trust account maintained with Citibank N.A. Singapore branch. Citibank N.A. Singapore branch is currently licensed to carry on banking business in Singapore. Please see the clause below which explains how your monies will be transferred and held by our brokers, custodians and other intermediaries when we arrange for Investments to be purchased. We only accept monies from you which are received from bank accounts belonging to you. If we are not satisfied that the monies deposited by you came from bank accounts belonging to you, we will refund such monies to you unless we are required

balances in the omnibus customer account as interest will be received on an aggregate basis. 7.5 In the event of insolvency of the bank, custodian or other financial institution holding the omnibus customer trust account, you understand that you may not be able to fully recover your monies. Further, as your monies are commingled with those of other customers in the same account, you may potentially be exposed to the losses of other customers. 7.6 We shall only pay monies in the trust account belonging to you to bank accounts belonging to you. We reserve the right to withhold such payments if we are not satisfied that the monies will be paid to bank accounts belonging to you.	under applicable laws to withhold the monies. Likewise, we will only repay your monies to bank accounts belonging to you.
8. BROKERAGE, CUSTODY AND USE OF INTERMEDIARIES 8.1 We may use or engage a person (including a nominee, agent, broker, custodian, fund manager, market-maker, exchange and/or other third party) ("Intermediary") to, directly or indirectly: (a) execute or clear Transactions; (b) purchase and/or manage Investments; and/or (c) hold or custodise any of your funds or Assets. 8.2 Provided that we have selected such Intermediary in good faith, you agree we shall have no liability or responsibility for any act, omission, insolvency, negligence, failure or default of the Intermediary. Our Intermediaries may also appoint further custodians, sub-custodians, trustees, registrars, administrators, nominees and/or agents as may be necessary or expedient to provide the relevant services or Investments to us. You agree that we shall have no liability or responsibility in relation to any actions taken by such persons or these further appointments by our Intermediaries which are beyond our reasonable control. 8.3 You agree that where we use another Intermediary to execute or clear your Transactions, purchase or manage your Investments or hold or custodise your funds or Assets, we may have to accept sole and principal responsibility to the Intermediary for the Investments and/or executed Transaction. You understand that this means that we may enter into Transactions to sell or purchase Investments (including units of collective investment schemes) as principal. In some situations, we may also enter into these sale or purchase of Investments with you and in so doing, we will act as principal not as agent. You further acknowledge and agree that where we sell or purchase Investments on your behalf, we may do so by selling or purchasing from Intermediaries, our other customers and/or such	We will arrange for Investments to be purchased through brokers. In some cases, we may purchase Investments such as units of collective investments schemes through scheme managers or fund managers. We will enter into such arrangements with such Intermediaries in our name. If we have to take any action against these Intermediaries to ensure that we can perform our duties under the Agreement, you agree to indemnify us if these actions are taken in good faith. You also understand that since the arrangements are entered into between us and the Intermediaries, there is a risk that the Intermediaries may take actions against us to your disadvantage. Currently, we have opened a securities brokerage account with Saxo Capital Markets Pte. Ltd. ("Saxo"), which is authorised to carrying business in both dealing in securities and providing custodial services for securities in Singapore. We will use your monies maintained in the trust account referred to in the clause above to buy and sell

other third parties as we may deem suitable as part of our management of your portfolio.	Investments on your behalf through this account with Saxo, which is a consolidated account we use for all our clients. Saxo in turn has an arrangement with Citibank, N.A. to hold Investments which we buy and sell, and an arrangement with Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation Limited, Singapore Branch ("HSBC") to hold the monies we transfer to them for the purchase of Investments and monies to be transferred to us for the sale of Investments and return (which will then be transferred to our trust account referred to in the clause above). HSBC is currently licensed to carry on banking business in Singapore.
8.4 You shall indemnify us against any and all action which we deem in good faith necessary to ensure that we will not be in default of our obligation or responsibilities under this Agreement. Our foregoing right shall apply even though as between you and us, you may be in actual or anticipatory default. The foregoing indemnity in our favour is in addition to any other right that we may have (whether expressly provided as between us or implied by law).	Where the Investments are securities listed on the Singapore Exchange Securities Trading Limited ("SGX") and held with the Central Depository (Pte) Limited ("CDP"), such investments purchased by us are held on your behalf in our name by Saxo, which in turn uses HSBC as a depository agent holding these Investments with CDP. These Investments will not be held in your name. HSBC also acts as the custodian for both your Investments as well as the monies to be transferred to us for the sale of Investments and return in this case.
8.5 In view of the fact that we may have accepted principal responsibility and/or liability to Intermediaries, you also acknowledge and consent to the fact that there is a risk that such Intermediaries may regard any Investments which we purchase on your behalf, as investments which we purchase for ourselves. This may in some instances result in prejudice to you. For example, there is a risk that the Intermediaries may attempt to use your Investments to satisfy our obligations or obligations of our other customers. You accept that this is a necessary risk of dealing in such jurisdictions through us.	For certain portfolios where the Investments are units of collective investment schemes purchased through a scheme manager, we will ensure that the relevant scheme manager is licensed to conduct fund management activities in Singapore. The scheme
8.6 You agree that neither us nor our Intermediaries shall provide any margin facility to you in respect of the Investments.
8.7 Without prejudice to any other provision in this Agreement, you agree that: (a) we may, whether directly or indirectly (through brokers/ custodians/ nominees/ exchanges/ clearing houses ("Custodian") or otherwise), hold Investments purchased for you in an omnibus custody account, aggregated with other Investments of our other customers, and/or the customers of these Custodians, and such Investments may not be held in your name. This means that your Investments will be commingled with the assets of our other customers and/or the customers of these Custodians. Given such commingling, the Investments may be registered collectively in our name, the name of the Custodian, a sub-custodian and/or any other third party and your entitlements may not be identifiable as separate certificates, titles or electronic records. You agree that if there are any dividends, interests, rights, benefits or other proceeds in relation to your Investments resulting from such commingling, we shall have full discretion as to the allotment of such dividends, interests, rights, benefits or other proceeds;
(b) In the event of insolvency or default of the Custodian, you understand that you may not be able to fully recover your Investments held in the omnibus custody account. Any shortfall in the Investments may be shared among you and our other customers and/or the customers of the Custodians

pro rata. As your Investments are commingled with those of other customers in the same account, you may potentially be exposed to the losses of other customers; (c) provided that we have selected or engaged such Custodian in good faith, we shall not be liable to you for any and all Losses suffered or incurred by you as a result of any act, omission or insolvency of such Custodian; (d) where Investments are denominated in a foreign currency, the Investments may be held in an omnibus custody account with an entity which is licensed, registered or authorised to act as a custodian in the country or territory where such Investments are held. In such case, you understand that the laws and practices relating to custody accounts in the relevant jurisdiction may differ from the laws and practices in Singapore. Such differences mean that your Investments may not enjoy the same level of protection as accorded to Investments that are held in Singapore. Depending on the jurisdiction, this may affect your ability to recover the Investments deposited in the custody account; (e) your Investments may be treated as fungible with other Investments in the omnibus custody account and therefore, we are not obliged to deliver any specific Investments to you and may instead sell the Investments at your expense and transfer to your Account the proceeds of such sale (if any). 8.8 You acknowledge that where your Investments are held with different Intermediaries and/or appointees of our Intermediaries, the manner in which your Investments may be held in different entities may be different.	manager may also appoint appropriately licensed custodians, trustees, registrars and administrators in respect of collective investment scheme. The custodial arrangements in respect of these Investments will be subject to the terms and conditions as agreed between the scheme manager and the relevant custodian.
9. RISKS ACKNOWLEDGEMENT 9.1 You are fully aware of the risk relating to Transactions entered into. In particular, you understand that: (a) Your Investments are not "capital protected" and therefore, you may lose your capital by entering into the Transactions; (b) Where the Investments are listed outside Singapore, such Investments are subject to the laws and regulations of the jurisdiction they listed and you are aware of the risks involved with investing in such products, including but not limited to differences in regulatory regime and investor protection, differences in legal systems, jurisdiction-specific costs (including tax related costs), exposure to foreign counterparty and correspondent broker risks, and exposure to the political, economic and social developments in the applicable	You understand that there are risks involved in the Investments, some of which are highlighted in clause 9.1. For example, the Investments are not "capital protected" and therefore you may therefore lose your capital by investing. In addition, the Investments are listed outside Singapore and not denominated in Singapore currency. SCHEDULE 3 - OVERSEAS-LISTED INVESTMENT PRODUCTS

RISK WARNING

An overseas-listed investment product* is subject to the laws and regulations of the jurisdiction it is listed in. Before you trade in an overseas-listed investment product or authorise someone else to trade for you, you should be aware of:

- The level of investor protection and safeguards that you are afforded in the relevant foreign jurisdiction as the overseas-listed investment product would operate under a different regulatory regime.
- The differences between the legal systems in the foreign jurisdiction and Singapore that may affect your ability to recover your funds.
- The tax implications, currency risks, and additional transaction costs that you may have to incur.
- The counterparty and correspondent broker risks that you are exposed to.
- The political, economic and social developments that influence the overseas markets you are investing in.

These and other risks may affect the value of your investment. You should not invest in the product if you do not understand or are not comfortable with such risks.

*An "overseas-listed investment product" in this statement refers to a capital markets product that is listed for quotation or quoted only on overseas securities exchange(s) or overseas futures exchange(s) (collectively referred to as "overseas exchanges").

1. This statement is provided to you in accordance with paragraph 29D of the Notice on the Sale of Investment Products [SFA04-N12].
2. This statement does not disclose all the risks and other significant aspects of trading in an overseas-listed investment product. You should undertake such transactions only if you understand and are comfortable with the extent of your exposure to the risks.
3. You should carefully consider whether such trading is suitable for you in light of your experience, objectives, risk appetite, financial resources and other relevant circumstances. In considering whether to trade or to authorise someone else to trade for you, you should be aware of the following:

Differences in Regulatory Regimes

- (a) Overseas markets may be subject to different regulations, and may operate differently from approved exchanges in Singapore. For example, there may be different rules providing for the safekeeping of securities and monies held by custodian banks or depositories. This may affect the level of safeguards in place to ensure proper segregation and safekeeping of your investment products or monies held overseas. There is also the risk of your investment products or monies not being protected if the custodian has credit problems or fails. Overseas markets may also have different periods for clearing and settling transactions. These may affect the information available to you regarding transaction prices and the time you have to settle your trade on such overseas markets.

- (b) Overseas markets may be subject to rules which may offer different investor protection as compared to Singapore. Before you start to trade, you should be fully aware of the types of redress available to you in Singapore and other relevant jurisdictions, if any.
- (c) Overseas-listed investment products may not be subject to the same disclosure standards that apply to investment products listed for quotation or quoted on an approved exchange in Singapore. Where disclosure is made, differences in accounting, auditing and financial reporting standards may also affect the quality and comparability of information provided. It may also be more difficult to locate up-to-date information, and the information published may only be available in a foreign language.

Differences in legal systems

- (d) In some countries, legal concepts which are practiced in mature legal systems may not be in place or may have yet to be tested in courts. This would make it more difficult to predict with a degree of certainty the outcome of judicial proceedings or even the quantum of damages which may be awarded following a successful claim.
- (e) The Monetary Authority of Singapore will be unable to compel the enforcement of the rules of the regulatory authorities or markets in other jurisdictions where your transactions will be effected.
- (f) The laws of some jurisdictions may prohibit or restrict the repatriation of funds from such jurisdictions including capital, divestment proceeds, profits, dividends and interest arising from investment in such countries. Therefore, there is no guarantee that the funds you have invested and the funds arising from your investment will be capable of being remitted.
- (g) Some jurisdictions may also restrict the amount or type of investment products that foreign investors may trade. This can affect the liquidity and prices of the overseas-listed investment products that you invest in.

Different costs involved

- (h) There may be tax implications of investing in an overseas-listed investment product. For example, sale proceeds or the receipt of any dividends and other income may be subject to tax levies, duties or charges in the foreign country, in Singapore, or in both countries.
- (i) Your investment return on foreign currency-denominated investment products will be affected by exchange rate fluctuations where there is a need to convert from the currency of denomination of the investment products to another currency, or may be affected by exchange controls.
- (j) You may have to pay additional costs such as fees and broker's commissions for transactions in overseas exchanges. In some jurisdictions, you may also have to pay a premium to trade certain listed investment products. Therefore, before you begin to trade, you should obtain a clear explanation of all commissions, fees and other charges for which you will be liable. These charges will affect your net profit (if any) or increase your loss. Counterparty and correspondent broker risks
- (k) Transactions on overseas exchanges or overseas markets are generally effected by your Singapore broker through the use of foreign brokers who have trading and/or clearing rights on those exchanges. All transactions that are executed upon your instructions with such counterparties and correspondent brokers are dependent on their respective due performance of their obligations. The insolvency or default of such counterparties and correspondent brokers may lead to positions being liquidated or closed out without your consent and/or may result in difficulties in recovering your monies and assets held overseas.

Political, Economic and Social Developments

- (l) Overseas markets are influenced by the political, economic and social developments in the foreign jurisdiction, which may be uncertain and may increase the risk of investing in overseas-listed investment products.

You acknowledge that you have received a copy of the Risk Warning Statement and understand its contents.
